IntenseVon bxrThe art is top-notch and intense. Too bad the size of this book is so small. The story is engaging and the pages are not too thin.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Are you a fan of comic-art? Then what are you waiting for?!Von Genji"The Sensational Spider-Man: Feral" is a compilation of 5 issues from the "The Sensational Spider-Man" comic series.STORYThe story is pretty straight forward without any unbelievable twists but very fluid to read.ARTWORK IN ISSUES #23-25 AND #27Except for issue #26 the artwork is absolutley top-notch: penciled by Angel Medina, inked by Scott Hanna and colored by Dan Kemp. The artistic qualities from the 90's combined with printmaking from 2007 ensures a mindblowing experience.ARTWORK IN ISSUE #26The artwork in issue #26 does not follow the other issues. Starting with the fact that there is only one listed artist (Clayton Crain) the artwork was by far not as rich and as artistically sophisticated as in the other issues.***Warning: the following statement is very subjective***I study art design and i gotta' say that while reading through issue #26 I saw "Photoshop" written over every page....if you know what i mean ;-)
CONCLUSION"The Sensational Spider-Man: Feral" is a good compilation that represents pretty good what the whole "The Sensational Spider-Man" comic series stands for.If you put the story and the characters aside I recommend this book to every fan of comic-art because in my eyes that 's basicly what it is: a collection of 4 issues with great artwork....and 1 issue with mediocre digital art
