We have been reading it in preparation for the arrival of our second daughter . The text is simple and straightforward, and the black and white illustrations are plentiful and work well with the text. The overall message of the book is right on: there are differences between sisters and there are some things that they feel the same about, but the bottom line is that they love each other very much.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. About the things sisters shareVon Ein KundeMy sister bought me this book when I was 20 and she was 16. Now I read it to my 2 year old, who has a new baby sister. The two year old loves hearing about the things sisters have in common and the things they don't.
