recommend!

Kurzbeschreibung Sketches by Boz is a collection of short pieces published by Charles Dickens in 1836. Dickens' career as a writer of fiction truly began with this collection in 1833, when he started writing humorous sketches for The Morning Chronicle, using the pen-name "Boz". The first edition was accompanied by illustrations by George Cruikshank. The sketch "Mr. Minns and his Cousin" (originally titled "A Dinner at Poplar Walk") was the first piece of fiction that Dickens ever had published. Pressestimmen Walter Bagehot once remarked, Dickens wrote about London "like a special correspondent for posterity". "The first sprightly runnings of his genius are undoubtedly here," wrote Dickens' friend and biographer John Forster.
